Restrooms are located in the Educational Building. If you need directions, feel free to ask one of our door greeters—they're happy to assist.

Each Sunday, we invite you to join us for Fellowship Time in the Memorial Room (directly behind the Sanctuary) between services. It's a great opportunity to connect and enjoy some conversation.

The Tale of the Little Change Jug
(A Story with a Big Heart)

Once upon a time, in the back shelf of the Sanctuary, there lived a little jug. It wasn't fancy—no sparkles or gold leaf—but it has a very important job to do.

This was The Change Jug, and it had a dream: to be filled with the small bits of kindness people carry in their pockets, wallets, and bottomless handbags. You know the kind—those lonely pennies, nickels, and crumpled dollar bills that fall between the seats of your car or linger in your coat pockets from last winter.

People would pass by and say, “Well, what’s a few coins going to do?” But oh, the Change Jug knew better.

Every time someone dropped in a handful of change or a surprise $5 bill, the little jug gave a tiny clink of joy. Week after week, the sound grew louder. A jingle here, a rustle there. Before long, the Change Jug was full—and ready to help.

Unlike our regular tithes and offerings, this jug’s collection had a special purpose. It helped cover the extra things—keeping the lights on, fixing a leaky faucet, stocking the paper towels, or paying the oil bill when it’s cold. Quiet things. Necessary things. Things that keep our church running behind the scenes.

The Change Jug didn’t need applause. It didn’t ask for a lot. Just the little extras—the bits that didn’t make it into your wallet or your Sunday envelope.

And the best part? Every coin, every dollar, came with a story. A gesture of love. A quiet amen.

So next time you spot it sitting patiently in the back of the church, remember that small jug is doing big work. And it’s waiting for a little help from you—and whatever might be jingling at the bottom of your bag.

Bethany Rouland is going on a Missions Trip

I am going to be going back to Guatemala for a mission trip in March 2026. We will be providing medical clinics for rural towns and building homes as well. It was a wonderful experience last year to be a part of this group and I would appreciate a donation in any amount to help cover the cost of medications, supplies and building materials. Thank you in advance for your donation! Have a wonderful day.
